

Paolo Stante

Paolo Stante is a singer, songwriter and guitarist playing modern interpretations of the classic blues and rock sound. He is based in the city of Montreal, Quebec, and represented by the Vision Records & Publishing Ltd. independent record label. His most recent LP album, "Lawless," continues to garner critical and fan acclaim since its global distribution in March 2024. He is joined by Mario Orsini on bass guitar and by David Paul Neil on drums and percussion.

Stante's previous records include "At It Again" (2018) "Man Out of Time" (2015), "One Way Back" (2013), and singles such as "Hell Or High Water", "Dream Girl", "Can't Find My Way" (2024) "4 Bases" and "Your Kind of Pain" (2014).

Paolo Stante has performed widely in Canada in such locales as Montreal, Quebec City, Trois-Rivières, Hull, Gatineau, Hudson, Saint-Anne de Bellevue, Iles Perrot, Beaconsfield, Pointe-Claire, Ottawa, Cornwall, Toronto, Alexandria, Brockville, Martin Town, Vankleek Hill in the Provinces of Quebec and Ontario, respectively, and many more.

Stante has talked about his particular passion for blues rock as "a means for me to express myself," and describes the themes of his songs as "generally based on the trials and tribulations of life, both within and without."

"Playing blues rock allows me to get in touch with my innermost feelings," writes Paolo Stante. "It takes me away from the drudges of everyday life."

Music from Paolo Stante, much of which is recorded at Third Eye Studios, is available from over 600 quality digital music stores online worldwide now. Get in early, rock fans.

"I would like to thank my fans for their continued support and I hope that they find enjoyment in the music." - Paolo Stante